

Yes, Women Can Vote On Bond Issue

The question has been asked quite frequently lately whether women could vote on the bond issue and we take this means of stating that they can. In Menefee county at the Good Roads election held recently the women voted almost solidly in favor of same and we feel confident the women of Montgomery will not be less progressive and will VOTE UNANIMOUSLY TO GET OUT OF THE MUD.

The election to be held Saturday, May 28th, should create much interest in this county and every woman, as well as every man, should be CERTAIN to go to the polls and cast their vote in favor of the most progressive step taken by this county in fifty years. In our sister county of Menefee there was only 150 votes recorded against the bond issue and surely a county with the resources of Montgomery should be far more interested in this most progressive move.

LET'S MAKE IT UNANIMOUS.

City High School News

The Senior Class will conduct chapel exercises on Wednesday, June 1st. The program will consist of:

Bible Reading—Lucille Bush.

Roll Call—Secretary of Class.

Looking Backward—Marjorie Sullivan.

Grumbler—Mattie Pinney.

Giftorian—John Samuels.

Planting of Ivy—Senior Class.

All friends of the graduates are cordially invited to attend the services, which will begin at 10 o'clock.

The Y. W. C. A. had its annual election of officers last Friday. Hazel Sullivan was elected president, Blanche Clark vice president, and Lonise Orear secretary-treasurer. The advisory board will include Mrs. Turner, Miss Cassity, Mrs. Orear and Mrs. Clark.

Vote "YES" at the Good Roads election Saturday.

Sir Knight Dies Suddenly at His Home

News was received here Sunday morning announcing the death of Sir Knight J. D. Catlin, of Marion Commandery No. 24, Lebanon, Ky. Mr. Catlin attended the convalescence here last week, being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mitchell, and made many friends while in this city, who will regret to learn of his death.

Death of Infant

George Prather, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prather, died in this city on Sunday, May 22, at 8 P. M. at the home of its grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lefe Risner. The funeral service by B. W. Trimble, was held on Monday afternoon in the burying ground at the top of a forest-covered hill two miles west of Jeffersonville.

Vote "YES" at the Good Roads election Saturday.

Mrs. James White Answers Final Call

Mrs. Annie White, wife of James White, aged about 58 years, died at her home on the Maysville pike Sunday morning, May 22, following a lingering illness. Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Elgin Sharp, of Sharpsburg, and Mrs. W. W. Enbank, Jr., of this county; two brothers, A. G. Ratliff, of this city and Richard Ratliff, of Winchester, and two sisters, Mrs. Taylor Crockett and Mrs. Jennie Judy, both of Sharpsburg.

Funeral services were held at the residence Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. W. Fortune with burial in Crown Hill cemetery at Sharpsburg.

Mrs. White was a member of the Somerset Christian church and a noble example of the true Christian life. She belonged to one of the oldest and most influential families of this section and led a consecrated life well worthy of emulation, and in her passing not only her family, but the entire community, has lost one of earth's purest and noblest of women—and although her days on earth are ended, the beautiful life led by this devoted wife, mother and sister will live long in the memory of all who knew and loved her.

FLOWER SALE

The annual sale of cut flowers and plants will be held at the Woman's History Club Monday morning, May 30th. Orders for cut flowers accepted previous to Decoration Day for delivery Sunday or Monday.

Circuit Court

Montgomery Circuit Court convened in the May term Monday with Judge H. R. Prewitt presiding. Hon. W. C. Hamilton on duty and all court officials, ready to obey the bidding of those in authority. The jury reported as published in our last issue were present. Judge Prewitt delivered an earnest impressive charge under the law and the mills began to grind.

The docket is very light. The case against H. H. Pieper was continued by prosecution and Mr. Pieper returned to New York today.

Case against John O. Kidd set for tomorrow and which necessitates a special judge, and may be continued due to the fact that no judge has been assigned.

The Trimble will case is set for next Monday and we are informed indications are that a compromise may be effected.

FALLS FROM CHAIR

Mrs. Paul K. McKenna fell from a chair on which she was standing to adjust a window shade at her home and was seriously injured. A deep gash was cut in her back which required several stitches to close, and she suffered other injuries. Mrs. McKenna is resting comfortably today.

Nominate your favorite today.

Skeleton Found in Menefee County

The following letter to the county clerk of Menefee county relative to a skeleton found in that county at Slade several days ago, will be of interest to our subscribers in that section:

Slade, Ky., May 18, 1921.

To the County Clerk of Menefee County, Frenchburg, Ky.—My dear sir—There was a skeleton of a man found near here today on the head of Clear Branch, by a boy named Wit Brannon, and is quite a mystery as no one is missing nor has there been, and no inquiry made from anyone. There is no meat only the skeleton or frame work of the body. He was under a cliff about 50 feet high and a few yards from a road, but not much traveled. Near the body was a basket containing five shirts, two pair of home-made drawers, one white plaited bosom shirt, size 16, trade-mark, Sterling, a pair of large size corduroy trousers. He wore a pair of blue serge trousers, a good quality wool hat, a pair of 10 or 11 shoes, coarse work socks, a pair of gold-filled glasses; also case containing a button and a small marble, two purses, one contains $6.85; 4 one-dollar bills, two 50c pieces, three quarters, one piece of money made in 1919. A box of matches a piece of a scythe rock, a watch chain, but no watch, a card with two new safety pins; also a card of pearl buttons. The trade mark on buttons is a little girl holding a doll by the arm and contains the word Chalmers. A blue dotted handkerchief and a cake of soap. If there is a paper printed at Frenchburg I wish you would have this printed as we citizens here are very anxious to have this mystery solved. There was a part of two newspapers with the other belongings. One a Campton Courier, date July 5th, 1917, the other bore no date, but it is a piece of a Lexington Herald. The supposition here is that it was some one going to the oil field and missed the road and fell over the cliff, and might be a Wolfe or Menefee county man. I judge from the small amount of gray mixed hair he was a man between 50 and 60 years of age.

Will you kindly give this your attention and make it known at once. The remains are at Erwin & Co., store here at Slade. Magistrate Profit held an inquest and the citizens carried it in. The right shoe has been repaired, a small strip of leather on the bottom. If I haven't made this plain and there is anyone missing from your county I will be glad to give any information or assistance I can. The shoes are front laced and I judge a 10 or 11 in size. The boy was seen digging when he found the skeleton. Some men went out on top of the cliff and there is a horse's track near where the body is supposed to have gone over.

Respectfully yours,

Mrs. Minnie L. Faulkner.

P. S.—Some think he has been dead three or four years, but judging from appearance of basket and the money he has been dead a year or a year and a half.

Graduating Exercises

The commencement and graduating exercises of the Eighth Grade of the County High School took place this afternoon in the chapel. Dr. M. V. P. Yeaman, of the Presbyterian church, made an address to the class, after which musical numbers were given by Mrs. S. F. Hamilton and Miss South. Diplomas were presented by Miss Marguerite Newmeyer to the following: Eva Pasley, Herman Ponder, Linnie Hoskins, Frank Hastie, Elba West, Gladys West, Elizabeth Davis, Bernie McCracken, Caywood Wills, Edna May Coburn, Freeman Tussey, Mildred B. Phipps, Pearl Breeding, Ruth Hall, Sherman Steele and J. B. Garrison.

RESIGNS POSITION

Mrs. Edward Dunn, who has been the efficient and popular clerk at the Mt. Sterling Grocery for several years, has resigned her position and accepted a similar one with the Cash Grocery Co.

Earn An Automobile In Big Prize Race

Or One of the Other Valuable Prizes Offered in Advocate's Campaign.

Prospective candidates who have been thinking they would like to own one of the other splendid prizes offered in the big prize race should put their thoughts into action. Unless you show some inclination to help yourself you can't expect your friends to give you very liberal support.

The first thing to do is to see that your name is on the list of candidates and get the receipt book and other supplies necessary to make a good campaign. Then show your friends you really want to win by soliciting their support. You can do this either by having a personal talk with your friends or by sending out letters. We will furnish you letters for this purpose.

Half the battle is in getting started, but after you do, you will find your friends will be glad to help you and you will have little trouble in securing a great many votes and subscriptions.

Remember, every candidate who makes an active race gets either one of the regular prizes or a cash prize. There are no losers, so why hesitate about commencing your campaign?

In order to give new candidates an opportunity to get started, we have extended the date on the special ballots. The first three subscriptions—either new or renewal—turned in before June 4th will entitle the candidate to three special ballots good for 10,000 extra votes each.

Our subscribers are beginning to take quite an interest in the big race and are sending in hundreds of the 50-vote coupons for the various candidates. However, only a few candidates have yet commenced their campaigns and the prizes are actually going begging for lack of active candidates to compete for them.

Those who first awaken to the wonderful opportunity offered and get their campaigns started will certainly be well paid for their spare-time efforts. Even though a candidate may have votes to her credit, that does not necessarily mean that she is making an active race—our subscribers are casting their votes in many instances for candidates who will not even try.

Latest Standing

Following is the latest standings up to 10:30 A. M., Tuesday. If your name is on the list and you do not intend to make an active race, please notify the campaign manager at once so it may be taken from the list. It is hardly fair to your friends who may be voting for you or to those candidates who might wish to try, to keep it on the list if you do not intend to try for the prizes.

Work Begun on $100,000 Shale Plant

The Shale Rock Corporation has begun work grading the switch line from near Ogg Station on the K. & S. A. Railroad, a distance of one-half a mile to the plant. The completed factory, which will be constructed in units, will cost approximately $750,000 as stated by Mr. V. O. Fonk, of Pittsburgh, secretary and treasurer of the company, who is here and will give the work his personal supervision.

Mr. Foulk further stated that the impression out that the company would soon offer stock for sale to the local people was incorrect, and that no stock would be offered for sale here.

The building of this plant will be of much interest to Mt. Sterling, as it will create a large payroll, the greater portion of which will be spent with Mt. Sterling business men.

Another proposition which will come a little later on is, how will the laboring men be housed, will the railroad furnish a special train to transport the men to and from the plant, with homes in this city, or will it be necessary for the company to build homes at the plant? This will be a matter to be settled by our people after the completion of the first plant unit.

Again, already another manufacturing concern now established and doing a profitable business, a rich company, is interested in a change of location on account of the great abundance of shale in this section.

This section is now approaching, as we see it, a golden opportunity, and we should be ready to deal with the increased population and business these new enterprises will add.

Commencement Plans of City High School

The Baccalaureate Sermon to the graduating class of the City High School will be preached Sunday evening, May 29th, at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. W. O. Lappin, of the Morehead Normal School. The commencement exercises will be held in the auditorium of the school Friday evening, June 3rd. State superintendent George Colvin will deliver the address.

The Grammar School exercises will take place Friday evening, June 10th, at 8 o'clock in the auditorium. On Monday morning, May 30th, the Seniors will conduct chapel exercises.

SELLS MODERN HOME

T. Foster Rogers, the real estate agent, sold for Dr. C. W. Compton his modern dwelling located on Samuels avenue to George W. Anderson, Jr., of Beattyville, Ky. Mr. Anderson will move to the property with his family to reside about July 15.

Vote "YES" at the Good Roads election Saturday.

Paved Streets or Mud Roads? Which?

This is the question that will be decided by the citizens of Montgomery county at the polls Saturday, May 28th. If we vote the bond issue we are assured of several paved main thoroughfares and the other roads of the county being put in a much better condition that we will have a system of highways equalled by few counties in the state. The amount of money, even our largest taxpayers will be called on to pay will be comparatively small, and we hope every far-sighted, public-spirited man will do all in his power to keep Montgomery county out of the mud. Let's get busy and work for the greatest issue that has been before our people in half a century.

County High School Alumni Banquet

The banquet given by the Alumni Association of the Montgomery County High School last evening was attended by about forty guests and was highly enjoyed. The decorations were of pink and white, the colors of the Class of '21, and were most effectively used. The banquet was served by a committee from the Country Woman's Club and it goes without saying that the menu was a faultless one. Hohart Grooms, of the class of '20, now a student at the University of Kentucky, was present and acted as toastmaster. Toasts were given by Miss Nannie May Coons, president of the Class of '21, and Mrs. Ila See Zimmerman, Miss Mary Belle Campbell, Orville Alfrey, Miss Mary Williams, Miss Elsie Stephens, Robert Moss and Prof. M. J. Goodwin. After the banquet a musical program was given, including a vocal solo by Mrs. S. F. Hamilton, a violin selection by Miss Endora South and a number of songs by the Senior Class.

ANNOUNCEMENT

There will be two important meetings at the History Club rooms on Wednesday afternoon of this week the 25th inst. at 2 o'clock. Miss Pasheva will organize a Mt. Sterling branch of the Non-Partisan National League of Women Voters. She will tell us "What it is—Why it is and how it works." All women cordially invited to this meeting. At 3 o'clock the same day and place the War Mothers and members of The Women's Auxiliary to the Montgomery Post of The American Legion, will meet to arrange and perfect the plans for Memorial Day. It is hoped that all women who can possibly do so will be on hand at the History Club rooms Wednesday, May 25th, 2 P. M., to hear Miss Pasheva.

PRISCILLA DEAN
"The Value of Poise"

I wish more girls would realize what a difference a dignified, even way of talking and acting makes in the impression they create.

To be dignified does not mean to be slow or poky, it simply means a proper respect for one's self with the ability to make one well considered by others.

There is nothing more offensive than the nervous shrill voiced girl who is forever thrusting herself where she is not wanted, and who is offish or ever effusive by turns. If you do not know what to say to people it is better to be silent than to chatter on without rhyme, or reason, and if you are not sure of your welcome it is certainly infinitely better to wait until you are spoken to than to sail in rashly and perhaps experience a rebuff.

I have seen many a newcomer in the moving picture game try to make a tremendous hit on the first day of her appearance on the lot. By loud dress and skittish manners she may compel attention, but what kind of attention? She forces herself on people and at first they are decent to her, but they soon find out that courtesy breeds familiarity and then they turn the cold shoulder, and there is hard feeling.

Go slow, my dear girls, in making friends, in this way you will attract the nicest people and form lifelong associations which will be both pleasant and profitable.

Temperament may be all right in a musician or an artist, and even there it is not tolerated in the way it used to be, but it is absolutely out of place in a private individual without genius to excuse it. I would hate to say how many people in moving pictures or on the stage have lost wonderful opportunities by allowing their nerves or their temperament to run away with them.

Directors and managers fight shy of such people and prefer to have around them those who are more dependable and who cultivate an even disposition and good manners.

If you are of a nervous tendency, watch yourself, and when your voice begins to rise from its low level and you begin to gesticulate, go home and rest yourself and regain your poise. Above all, never make any decision while you are excited. You cannot make an orderly argument, or see things as they really are when you yourself are disordered and upset.

Learn not to fidget and to walk up and down unnecessarily. Who has not suffered from bearing a woman snap her purse open and shut mechanically over and over again?

Or tap the back of her neighbor's chair or drum her fingers on the table?

Biting the nails or biting the lips, or rubbing one's chin are other symptoms of lack of poise. These nervous habits can be eliminated just as well as not if one takes the trouble.

I know a young woman in her early twenties who has a streak of white right in front of her glossy brown pompadour from twisting and pulling a mesh of hair while studying.

Another girl has widened a space between her front teeth from introducing the edge of paper or cardboard while thinking.

There is no excuse for such things. They are stupid and silly and such an absence of poise, a nervous condition which requires the attention of the doctor.

If you find yourself acquiring mannerisms watch yourself relentlessly. Be sure there is nothing in your way of living which causes you to be unduly nervous. Some women smoke cigarettes to excess. I have known a girl to sit down and consume eight in succession. Then, there is the question of coffee. Some people can drink and others cannot. Are you one of the people who should let it alone?

Ask yourself these questions and if you are doing anything which is ruining your nerves and making you a fidgety old woman before your time, for Heaven's sake, use good sense and self-control to end it out.

Self-control is simply another name for poise and this greatest of all social assets can be cultivated, and should be by the girl who wants to make the best impression on all she meets.

EDUCATIONAL TOOTH TALK—50 Drive In

TO OUT-OF-TOWN people—This is the time of year for dental work. The rush season is over—the roads are good. Pile the whole family into your car and head for our office. Let us fix you up before real winter sets in. Let us take away the misery that cold, damp, weather sometimes brings upon you. Some member of your family needs dental work, and needs it badly. Maybe you are aware of it, maybe not. In any event, let us get acquainted; let us form a partnership for the preservation of the teeth of your household.—Dr. H. M. Wright, Traders Bank Building.

No, Maudie, dear, it isn't altogether modesty that causes people to be shocked when confronted by the naked truth.

The fires of enthusiasm are not always the result of spontaneous combustion.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to an order of the Montgomery County Court in the matter of G. H. Strother and others on petition, entered March 21, 1921, a special election will be held in Montgomery County, Kentucky, on Saturday, May 28th, 1921, for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters of said county as to whether or not the Fiscal Court of said county shall, from time to time, issue and sell bonds of said county in the sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand ($250,000) Dollars for the purpose of building, constructing and reconstructing public roads and bridges with asphaltum, concrete, brick, stone block, macadam, gravel or other processes of equal merit, and at which election the proposition will be submitted in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

"Are you in favor of issuing Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand ($250,000) Dollars in bonds for the purpose of building roads and bridges?"

Said election will be held at the regular voting places in each of the precincts of said county between the hours of 6 o'clock A. M., and 4 o'clock P. M.

Given under my hand as sheriff of Montgomery County, Kentucky, this 19th day of April, 1921.

AN EDITORIAL ON ADVERTISING

"THE whole basis of national progress, of an increased standard of living, of better human relations, indeed of the advancement of civilization, depends on the continuous improvement in productivity," said Herbert Hoover, in a recent address at Syracuse.

And Mr. Hoover goes on to say: "The absorption of increased productivity lies in the conversion of luxuries of today into necessities of tomorrow, and to spread those through the whole population by stimulation of habit and education. Wheat bread, railways, good roads, electricity, telephones, telegraphs, automobiles and movies were once luxuries. They are still luxuries to some parts of the population."

The business of advertising is to educate and to stimulate habits and which produce increased demand.

In the course of this process, advertising reduces the cost of distribution and effects economies which make it possible to transform the luxuries of yesterday into the necessities of today.

ONE of the strongest illustrations of the economy of advertising is reducing the cost of distribution and sales by stimulating increased consumption and is found in the co-operative campaign of the California Fruit Growers. Their advertising manager describes as follows the results of their advertising, for which more than $1,000,000 was spent last year.

In the twelve years since the first campaign was launched in Iowa the consumption of Californian oranges has doubled. The American consumer has been taught by co-operative advertising to eat nearly twice as many oranges as before.

The expenditure of 21-2 cents a box, or about one-fifth of a cent per dozen, to advertise oranges, did not increase the price.

Had the orange industry remained on the old basis there would have been no profit in growing oranges.

New noreage would not have been planted.

Old orchards would most surely have been uprooted and other crops planted.

Co-operative advertising widened the growers' market.

The cost of selling oranges and lemons through the California Fruit Growers' Exchange is lower today than it was ten years ago.

AND the people who have learned what an enjoyable and healthful habit eating oranges is have received a benefit without any additional cost to them.

So it has been with every commodity and luxury, whether it be good foods, better raiment, labor-saving devices for the home, or fine furniture.

You have learned about them through advertising.

You have bought them upon the advice of advertising.

You have enjoyed them and made them a part of your life through the influence of advertising.

And you have paid less money for greater comfort, because advertising has not only sold them to you, but to millions of others. Increased production, widespread distribution, lowers prices—and advertising aids both.

Read Advertising every day. It is the surest aid to wise and economical buying. It will benefit you today just as it has benefited you in the past.

Chenault & Orear, of Mt. Sterling, say:

The De Laval puts money in the bank

MONEY in the bank is the final test of any piece of farm equipment. It is especially true of a cream separator.

Butter-fat is the most valuable product of the farm. Twice a day, every day in the year, gravity skimming or a poorly constructed separator wastes this high-priced food.

A De Laval Cream Separator stops this loss of profit. It supplies the extra money that is needed for current expenses, improvements about the farm, or for the purchase of new stock.

More than 2,500,000 De Laval are in daily use throughout the world. These De Laval owners represent the most progressive and most prosperous farmers in every country and locality.

A De Laval Cream Separator will make your farm more profitable, too, and put money in the bank for you.

You can buy a De Laval on such terms that it will actually pay for itself while you are using it. Come in and talk it over.

Sooner or later you will buy a De Laval

Lead Arsenate Kills Flea-Beetle Worms

Prompt and proper application of arsenical poisons offers the best means of ridding tobacco plants of the flea-beetle, which is a widely distributed insect and often causes considerable damage to plants both in the beds and fields, according to H. H. Jewett, from the College of Agriculture at Lexington.

In order to destroy this pest the plants should be sprayed with arsenate of lead paste at the rate of one pound of paste to ten gallons of water, or with arsenate of lead powder at the rate of one pound to 20 gallons of water. The insect may also be controlled by dusting the plants with a mixture of one pound of powdered arsenate of lead and four pounds of sifted wood ashes, care being taken to see that this mixture is properly prepared.

An additional measure of protection to plants in the field may be obtained by dipping them at transplanting time in a solution of arsenate of lead, using one pound of paste or one-half pound of powder to five gallons of water. The solution should be stirred frequently with a paddle during the dipping. This method of control gives best results when the plants are arranged in small bunches and only the leaves dipped in the solution and then given a slight shake to remove the excess moisture.

According to Mr. Jewett adults of the flea-beetle appear early in the spring and collect on the plants in the beds until transplanting time, when they move to the plants set in the field. Injury by this insect is characterized by small round or irregular punches scattered over the leaf surface or more or less complete destruction of the leaf. The adults feed principally on the under side of the leaf preferring those near the ground. The larvae feed upon the fine roots of the plant and are capable of doing considerable damage.

There is no anthem like a happy laugh, and no prayer so eloquent as a kind act. The real reverence is covered by no sowl. The man who lends the helping hand to need is devout.

GOOD TOBACCO WILL BE WANTED

In order to induce the people to use V.-C. Fertilizer and make fine tobacco, the V.-C. Co., the largest fertilizer company in the world, has just made a big reduction in prices, and I can now sell you our V.-C. Gem Tobacco Grower at $38.50 per ton, F. O. B. Lexington and $2.60 per bag for our V.-C. Plant Food.

Another common crop of tobacco would certainly bring ruin to the tobacco growers and to the tobacco trade, while a medium size crop of good, bright tobacco will be needed, and will no doubt bring good paying prices. 200 pounds of our Gem Tobacco Grower drilled in, or by the side of the row, gives your tobacco a start and ripens it up with good color two weeks sooner, and only costs $3.85 an acre; or three bags, 375 pounds drilled in all over the ground, will make you a fine tobacco crop and also make you a fine wheat or rye and grass crop following it. Either one of these crops will more than pay for the fertilizer. See that your plants are not killed.

A party that used three bags in this way made 13,875 pounds on ten acres and sold it for $40.14 average this season.

A little of our Plant Food sowed over the head and after they come up, and wished in, will give you plants two weeks sooner.

Two bags will double the yield of one acre of potatoes.

Terms this year are positively cash.

Have You Forgotten?

"Help the Salvation Army lassies, put the 'dough' in the doughnuts." Although the armistice was signed long ago, no service man, nor the parents or relatives of service men have forgotten what the lassies did "over there," when the Yanks most needed care.

The Salvation Army made a name for itself; it stood the acid test. Now it is asking for funds that it may continue standing this test.

While doughnuts are no longer necessary to keep up the morale of our fighters, everything that the doughnuts stood for during the war represents the general work of the Salvation Army here during peace time.

Through contributing to the Salvation Army cause you are assisting the lassies and those the lassies represent, to keep up the good work of helping "down and out" mankind.

A dollar may not mean much to you, but it means a great deal to a broken-down man or woman, a hungry or ill-clothed child or a poor invalid in time of dire need.

Do not take the appeal of the Salvation Army workers lightly.

Dig down deeply into your purse and feel yourself more than repaid by the smile that enters your heart.

It took "dough" to make doughnuts during the war; it will take "dough" to keep up the morale of the needy during peace time.

You have the "dough," the Salvation Army needs it badly. Are you going to fail the lassies in time of need, after what they have done for you and yours?

Not as long as doughnuts are made of "dough."

MERCHANT'S COLUMN

This happened last summer, but it is one of those stories that is as good in cold weather as it is in warm weather or middling weather.

The observer was going through Baltimore on a trip farther South when he remembered that there was a tiny hole in the big toe of his Can't-Wear-'Em-Out socks. It is embarrassing, you know, when you are away from home, to discover that the hosiery manufacturer has betrayed his trust and allowed your toes to poke through. So, picking out a haberdasher that had an attractively-arranged window (take note, Mr. Window-Dresser, if you please), the observer walked in and asked for two pair of hose.

The "man on the job" was the proprietor himself, and he was one of those genial men—not familiar or "clever," but one whose manner showed that he took great pleasure in serving well. They say there are many of that sort in Baltimore.

"Is the size right?" asked the observer when the merchant had handed out just the kind of socks wanted.

"Yes," said the other man, "I looked at your foot before I came around the counter. Few men know the size they wear, and so I usually take a look at the foot. You will find those just right."

"That's a good idea," said the observer, remembering that once upon a time he had bought some socks that cramped his toes. "And, by the way, I almost forgot that I need another union suit."

"You will find this a nice garment," said the good salesman, as he spreads out one of the "just right" kind. "And now don't you need a pair of garters?"

"By George, I do," said the observer, and then he said to this creative salesman: "Would you mind telling me why you suggested garters—just the other thing I need? Why didn't you say—what the salesman would usually say—'Don't you need something else?' or rattle off a list of things so fast I couldn't stop to consider anything you said?"

Said the haberdasher with a smile: "You bought hosiery, and then you called for another union suit, remarking that you had almost forgotten that you needed it, and it seemed to me that the next thing you would be most likely to need would be a pair of garters."

What a lesson he laid down. Most salesmen ask if there isn't "something else," and of course the natural impulse is to say "No." Other salesman rattle off a list, as a matter of habit. Besides, the reciting of a list is a suggestion that the salesman is anxious to load up the customer with a string of purchases, and such suggestions are resisted instinctively.

The right way is the way the genial Baltimore haberdasher did it—to be keen and to study the needs or the probable needs of the customer before you, and to make thoughtful, definite suggestions. The customer appreciates such service. He considers what you say, and he buys that other thing that he otherwise might not think of until he got a block down the street in front of your competitor's store.

Good for you, Mr. Baltimore salesman! May your genial, thoughtful tribe increase, for it is a pleasure to buy from you—Hall.

Timely Use of Poison Controls Garden Pests

Caterpillars are found on practically all kinds of garden plants and usually cause the gardener considerable trouble as well as loss in the form of plants destroyed. Some of these are easily controlled by timely use of poison while others, because of their modes of living, can only be partially controlled, according to H. H. Jewett, from the College of Agriculture.

The corn-ear worm attacks a number of plants in the garden, but its principal host, as the name indicates, is corn. Sweet corn is especially subject to attack. Green tomatoes are also very frequently eaten into and ruined by this very worm. The first brood of worms sometimes attacks the plants in the crown, when they are a foot or more tall. Many of these worms can be picked by hand or the plants can be sprayed with arsenate of lead. The greater number of eggs are placed, however, on the young silks and the young worms work into the ends of the ears. By spraying the silks with arsenate of lead at intervals of three or four days, a good per cent of the worms will be killed, but this is a too expensive and laborious process where more than very small plots are involved. These worms are best controlled on tomatoes by picking off the infested fruits and destroying them.

Cabbage and other cruciferous crops are especially subject to injury from cabbage worms. The white butterflies, or parents of these worms, may sometimes be seen in great numbers hovering around the cabbage plants. The plants should be dusted when the dew is on with powdered arsenate of lead or sprayed with the same poison or with Paris green. No harmful effects will result to the consumer from properly sprayed cabbage, but some growers prefer to use pyrethrum for the last sprayings. The pyrethrum should be mixed with three or four parts of lime or flour and dusted on the plants when they are wet with dew.

The melon worm attacks melons and other cucurbits, but prefers the melon. This worm is of a greenish-yellow color, about one inch long when full grown. It feeds on the leaves when young and bores into and destroys the fruit later. The caterpillars when feeding on the leaves can be killed by arsenical sprays. Remnants of crop and vines should be destroyed as soon as the harvest is over.

It is easier to look wise than it is to deliver the goods.

VOTE FOR GOOD ROADS AND PROGRESS

The election to be held in this county Saturday, May 28th called for the purpose of taking the sense of the legal voters as to whether we will vote a $250,000 bond issue for the purpose of building roads and bridges, is the most important issue that has been before our people to decide for the past half a century and it is sincerely hoped and believed the issue will carry by an immense majority. If the bond issue carries it means that Montgomery county will go ahead with the most progressive counties of Kentucky, while should the majority of our citizens decide it unwise to vote a bond issue it will put us in such a financial condition that many of our main thoroughfares, to say nothing of the cross roads, will shortly become practically impassable. Good roads mean progress and if we are to keep up with our sister counties we must support this proposition. Surely with the local press and our fiscal court solidly behind this movement we cannot err in accepting advice from those who have given this matter most careful study.

Donaldson

The revival conducted by Revs. Shields, Heath and Joines is progressing with large crowds attending and there will be three services Sunday and dinner on the ground. Every one invited.

Miss Elva and Gladys West had as their guests Sunday Misses Mabel Roundtree, Annie Sanders, Lula Leggett and Mr. Sterling Sanders.

Rev. Frank Shields and Rev. Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Swope, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Turley and children and Mrs. Corda Wade were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Shelton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Leggett were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roundtree Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Frank Shields and Rev. Heath were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton Sunday night and Monday.

Mr. Bascom Gilvin and Mr. Onie Kerns were the guests of Mr. Edward Shroat Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bailey were the guests of R. T. Bailey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Pendleton were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Omar Shelton Sunday.

Rev. Frank Shields and Rev. Heath are spending the day with Rev. Joines and Mrs. Joines, of Winchester, Ky.

Rev. Frank Shields and Rev. Heath spent Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. George Turley.

Camargo and Vicinity

The consolidated school here came to a most successful close last Friday. A splendid crowd was present, even the busy season was forgotten by many, and an enjoyable day spent among the children and young people of our community. The patrons furnished a substantial dinner for all present. The drills were enjoyed very much by all present, the little folks seemed to never tire with the marches. The May Queen, Miss Mary Jane Deally, looked very stately in a beautifully decorated carriage, drawn by a coterie of beautiful young ladies dressed in white. The winding of the May pole was well and beautifully done, and many other interesting features presented. On Wednesday night the High school presented "The Fascinating Miss Fannie Brown" to a full house. The work of each deserves of high compliment, and $33 was added to the school treasury for its many uses.

James McCormick is now seen driving a coupe.

Mr. Hisle, of Clark county, was a visitor at the home of Wm. Ecton last week. Mr. Hisle is only ninety-three and is probably the only man living in Kentucky today that has walked across the country in much earlier days and driven fat cattle to the New York city market before the day of railway service.

Mr. J. B. Riddle had a buggy destroyed last week at his home on the Oldham pike by a horse running away.

More corn was planted last week than probably all other weeks together this season, due to the fine weather.

A few have transplanted a part of the tobacco crop. All indications point to a reduced acreage this year.

Mrs. J. B. Riddle has recovered sufficiently to be brought to her home from the Chiles Hospital.

This section of our county seems almost unanimous for good roads. Mr. Ray Moss gave a splendid talk to the school gathering Friday and Friday night Mr. Kern brought Judge Robert Winn out and he spoke in the school auditorium to almost a full house of interested voters. If it be just and right that Kentucky have good roads, why not good old Montgomery have her part? It cannot pass every taxpayer's door to be sure, but if it be right to ever have, then a beginning must be made somewhere, sometime, ever a circle must have a point to start from, so must the good roads, "let's go."

Miss Pink Ricketts will attend summer school at Knoxville, Tenn., in a few weeks.

Mr. Charles Greer, of Dayton, O., visited last week at the home of his wife, James Greer and family.

Miss Gola Chase leaves this week to visit her mother and sister at Asheville, N. C.

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. I saw after taking some Cardui . . . that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person. "Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me . . . My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it." Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments. For sale everywhere. E.33

MT. STERLING GIRL MARRIED

On last Wednesday evening the home of Frank Allen, Richmond, was the scene of a quiet and impressive wedding ceremony when his son, William Anderson Allen, was united in marriage with Miss Anna Lucile Kirk, of Mt. Sterling, in the presence of a few friends and relatives, the Rev. Z. V. Liles officiating. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Charles H. Latham sang "At Dawning," with Miss Nonie Allen at the piano. The bridal party descended the stairway to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March and took their places before an improvised altar of ferns. The bride was charmingly gowned in blue tulle with accessories of gray and carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The maid of honor, Miss Jackie Trammell, wore a blue tulle frock and corsage of sweet peas and was attended by Herbert Gill. Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held and ices and mints were served. Mr. and Mrs. Allen are at home at the River-view apartments Richmond.

"Once a Trial Always Nyal"

Garden Does Much Toward Providing

If well-planned and well-kept the average garden will do much toward providing a living for any ordinary family, specialists in the home economics department of the College of Agriculture say. Plums should be made to include all the old favorite vegetables and some which are little grown at present in spite of the fact that they are of much value and are needed in a good healthful diet. Among these are spinach and carrots. Old fashioned spinach will furnish greens for the early spring months, while the New Zealand variety will keep up the supply all through the summer season. The family garden should be a partnership affair that is the work and the pride of the entire household, the specialists state.

When joy comes we never want to give him a holiday and that's why he slips away from us some dark night and old trouble comes and blows the fire out.

Just be on hand when joy takes his fiddle down from the wall and he will make it possible for you to dance your troubles out of town.

The Right Way Saves Annoyance

There are two ways to call a telephone number.

The wrong way is to call from memory; to "take a chance," to trust to luck that your memory doesn't play a trick on you, with the fickle figures in a telephone number.

The right way is to consult the Telephone Directory before calling and make sure you have the right number.

The right way saves annoyance to yourself and to the persons you might have called by mistake. It helps build up a higher grade of service for yourself and others. It eliminates useless calls which hamper service.

Marketgram

Hay—Receipts continue very light. Prices fluctuating with local demand. Few shipping orders being received by dealers in distributing markets. Increased loadings at country points reported in Central West. No. 1 timothy quoted, May 18, New York, at $28.50; Cincinnati, $22; Chicago, $22; Minneapolis, $19; Memphis, $25; No. 1 alfalfa, Omaha, $20; Kansas City, $23; Memphis, $28.50; No. 1 prairie Minneapolis, $15.50; Chicago, $18; Kansas City, $15.50.

Feed—Wheat mill feeds steady on light production. Demand remains limited. Cottonseed meal about $2 higher. Other feeds dull at prices practically unchanged from last week. Spring bran quoted May 18: Philadelphia, $25.25; Minneapolis, $16; Chicago, $19; hard winter bran Kansas City, $17.50; soft winter bran Cincinnati, $23; standard spring middlings, about $1 below the spring bran; cottonseed meal, Memphis, $29.25; Atlanta, $28.50; Chicago, $32.50; Cincinnati, $32.25; linseed meal, Minneapolis, $28; New York, $36; gluten feed, Chicago, $26; Philadelphia, $31.75; hominy feed, Cincinnati, $26; Philadelphia, $29; alfalfa meal, Kansas City, $17.50.

Grain—Prices fluctuated within narrow limits during the greater part of the week. There were numerous upturns due to unfavorable crop news, but reaction invariably followed. Only real strength for week shown on 18th, account bad crop reports and large export business. On the 19th May wheat went to 34c over July, but high points subsequently lost on reports of rains in Kansas and Nebraska and weakness in the coarser grains. Heavy undertone to corn market. Country offerings to arrive more liberal and show signs of increasing as corn planting nearing completion. In Chicago cash market No. 2 red winter wheat $1.58; No. 2 hard, $1.60; No. 3 mixed corn, 58c; No. 3 yellow corn, 58c; No. 3 white oats, 38c. For the week Chicago wheat up 9 3/4c to $1.53; May corn down 1 1/2c to 59c; Chicago July wheat up 4 3/4c to $1.20; July corn down 2 3/8c to 60 5/8c. Minneapolis July wheat up 4 1/4c to $1.25 1/4; Kansas City July 5c to $1 13; Winnipeg July 5 1/2c to $1.60.

Dairy Products—Under influence of increasing production and quality hardly such as to warrant heavy storage butter stocks have accumulated and prices declined seven cents at Eastern markets the past week. Buyers are buying little as prices continue downward. Closing prices, 92 score: New York, 28 1/2c; Boston, 29c; Philadelphia, 29 1/2c; Chicago, 28c.

Cheese markets have held weak and trading is little better at present although prices in Wisconsin range 13 3/4c to 14 1/2c; at Chicago, 14 1/4c to 15 1/4c; in Eastern markets

"As in the greatest cities and in his own home town—the U. S. Tire user gets fresh, live tires of current production."

THE U. S. CHAIN TREAD

One of the few tires of which it may be said that they deliver economy year in and year out and tire after tire.

The U. S. Chain Tread gives sufficient traction on all ordinary road surfaces. It is probably the handiest, and by all odds the most popular, of the whole U. S. Fabric Tire line.

"In every section, however remote, you find a dealer in fresh, live U. S. Tires."

Economy rides on U.S. Tires—

If you could get together all the car owners you know, you'd probably find that their tire experiences had been much the same.

Most of them have taken their fling at "job lots," "discontinued lines" and "surplus stocks." Soon or late, nearly all settled back on quality first as the one sound assurance of tire value.

As soon as a man forgets the cut-price tag, and comes to the dealer who concentrates on a full, completely sized stock of U. S. Tires—he learns what it means to get fresh, live tires—not once in a while but every time.

Not merely in the big cities, but in his own home town.

Not merely for the heavy car, but for the medium and light-weight car—a full selection of size, tread and type.

Your U. S. Tire dealer can give you this service because of the service he gets from his neighboring U. S. Factory Branch. There are 92 of these Branches. Each gets its share of U. S. Tires, so that the dealer is always supplied with fresh, live stock.

U. S. Tires sell as fast as they are made.

There is no over production. No surplus piled up waiting for a "market."

Wherever you buy a U. S. Tire—you buy a tire of current production, as full of life and value as the day it left the makers.

RENEWED TESTIMONY

No one in Mt. Sterling who suffers backache, headaches, or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this Mt. Sterling woman's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Mt. Sterling resident can doubt.

Mrs. J. C. McDonald, 115 Queen street, Mt. Sterling, says:

"I suffered with backache and had no energy to do my work, especially mornings. I had such dizzy spells I would almost fall. I had frequent headaches and nervous spells. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. I used Doan's Kidney Pills from Lund & Priest's Drug store and they strengthened my back, relieved the dizziness, headaches and other symptoms of kidney trouble."

Mrs. McDonald gave the above statement January 6th, 1917, and on December 11, 1920, she added: "I have always a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills since they cured me of kidney trouble. I am glad to again give them my endorsement."

Repotted Fern Will Make Best Growth

Ferns which are to be kept in pots all summer will make more rapid growth if they are removed and repotted with fresh soil after some of the old roots have been cut away, according to N. R. Elliott, from the College of Agriculture. Such ferns should be set outside once every ten days or two weeks and sprinkled in order to remove dust and dirt, which hinder growth.

Nux Vomica Worthless in Killing Hawks

In spite of the fact that there is a widespread idea among farmers of Kentucky that feeding Nux Vomica to chickens will kill hawks when they eat the fowls, this means of exterminating the common enemy of the poultry yard is worthless, specialists in the Poultry Department of the College of Agriculture, say. Further investigations by the department show that many species of hawks, with the exception of Cooper's hawk, which is not common in the state, visit the chick yards to get rats and mice, which kill young chickens and very seldom bother the fowls.

An old-time Prince was a fellow who bought six rounds in a row and stuck your money back in your pocket when you tried to do the honors.

Nothing is so reasonable and cheap as good manners.

Clean, Cool, Covered Milk Keeps Best

Keeping milk clean, cool and covered are the three essentials of successfully caring for it in the home during warm weather according to specialists from the College of Agriculture. All three points are easy to practice and if properly done will eliminate much loss in the family milk supply.

State Health Rate is Lowered

As a direct result of the work that has been carried on by the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association in the state during the last two years, the death rate from the disease has fallen from 195.5 per one hundred thousand of population in 1918 to 157.2 in 1920. Dr. J. S. Lock, secretary of the association and director of the State board of Health's bureau for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, said in his report at the association's annual meeting in Louisville yesterday. Twenty-two dispensaries now are functioning in the state, his report also stated. Two strictly tuberculosis clinics are in operation and are doing splendid work in finding early cases of the disease. Intensive work already has been done in Boyd, Mason, Mercer and Scott counties and is to be undertaken in the near future in Davis, Fluton, Muhlenberg and Harlan counties.

C. L. Adler, of Louisville, was re-elected the association's president, and Dr. Lock its secretary. Miss Jessie O. Yancey and Miss Marion Williamson also were re-elected, respectively, secretary for Modern Health Crusade Work and Supervisor of Nursing.

So many men who know all about running the government can't run themselves straight on a smooth road to Anywhere.

Nashville Man Gains 20 Pounds

Night Watchman Luckett Says He Feels Like a Different Man Since Taking Tanlac

It certainly is remarkable that a man sixty-nine years of age should gain 20 pounds in weight, but that is just what Benjamin A. Luckett says he did by taking Tanlac. Mr. Luckett is night watchman for the White Trunk and Bag Co., and lives at 4801 Tennessee St., West Nashville, Tenn.

"My health began to fail about two years ago. I had no appetite and what little I did eat gave me considerable discomfort afterwards, especially from gas that formed in my stomach, which gave me a tight and stuffy feeling. I had an awful pain across the small of my back and my kidneys bothered me a good deal."

"I lost thirteen pounds in weight and was going down hill so fast I became worried and discouraged. It was lucky for me, I started on Tanlac when I did, for it suited my case exactly. I am feeling like a different man now. I have such a big appetite I intend to get a bigger lunch-basket. Everything I eat agrees with me and I have gained twenty pounds in weight. I'm on the job every night now, feeling just fine."

Patient-Photographer: "Camcun! Look at the hirie!"

Intoxicated Person (reaching for his hip): "I hie can't see any birdies but here's a hic, coupler swallers."

Kentucky Crop Report

The condition of Kentucky's wheat crop indicates a probable production of about 7,951,000 bushels this season, compared to 5,610,000 bushels last year, according to the May crop report issued by the United States Bureau of Crop Estimates in co-operation with State Commissioner of Agriculture W. C. Haaaa. Probable rye production is estimated at about 505,000 bushels, compared to 430,000 bushels last year, and hay of all kinds about 1,661,000 tons, compared to 1,508,000 tons grown last year. Actual production this season may prove greater or less than these estimates, depending on whether conditions are particularly favorable or unfavorable between now and the threshing time and hay harvest.

Wheat and rye in most counties came through the winter in good condition, but farmers in most of the wheat growing counties report that wheat has been injured some by the late frosts and cold wet weather this spring. Kentucky's wheat acreage left for harvest now is estimated at 603,000 acres, compared to 550,000 finally harvested last year, but some farmers report an intention to "hog down" wheat if the price should be very low or a poor yield in prospect at harvest time. Condition this month is 93 per cent of normal, as compared to 71 per cent this time last year, and a 10-year average of 86 on May 1. Rye condition is 95 per cent of normal, compared to a 10-year average of 90 per cent on May 1.

The very early spring was generally favorable for plowing and other spring work, but the recent rains and cold weather have been general almost throughout the state, so that plowing is only 69 per cent completed, compared to 71 per cent usually done by May 1. Fifty per cent of spring planting was finished by May 1, compared to 45 per cent usually done by May 1. Pasture is 93 per cent of normal, compared to the 10-year average of 86 per cent. Twenty-five per cent of last year's hay crop in Kentucky (or 377,000 tons) is still on farms, compared to about 157,000 tons May 1, 1920.

Livestock losses during the winter were unusually light, except in some localities, and the spring condition of stock in general is above average. Losses from each 1,000 head during the winter and spring were: Horses and mules, 13; cattle, 22; sheep, 36; lambs, 48; swine, 30. The average losses during the last 10 years have been: Horses and mules, 19; cattle, 33; sheep, 56; lambs 73; swine, 63.

Compliments of Parade

Judge G. B. Swango, of this city, who has attended all the Reunions of the Confederate veterans, said of the parade, "I have seen larger but never one of more grandeur than that of the Knights Templar. The old veteran loved to talk of his associates, of their happy reunions, of their parades and this compliment from one endeared to his people as is Judge Swango, carries with it unusual force. Another compliment in this connection was from a stranger, who when asked as to the entertainment here, said, "I never expect to live to see the day of greater enjoyment and easier entertainment."

Fire Breaks Out In Lafayette Hotel

Fire, said to have been caused by sparks from an electric iron in the suite of Mrs. Clarence LeBus on the 11th floor of the Lafayette Hotel shortly after noon Sunday resulted in the loss of a number of fur coats and gowns belonging to Mrs. LeBus and several suits of clothes of Mr. LeBus, besides practically all the furnishings of the room. The loss suffered by Mrs. LeBus was estimated at between $5,000 and $6,000 and the room was damaged to the extent of $300.

Mrs. LeBus said her maid was pressing a dress with an electric iron when sparks shot out from the iron, setting fire to some draperies nearby, which formed an improvised clothes closet. The draperies being of light material burst into flame, igniting the fur coats and gowns.

The maid's cry of "Fire" was heard by a man on that floor, who, upon reaching Mrs. LeBus' suite, found it to be in such a mass of flames that he did not attempt to enter. Leonard Shouse, Jr., head clerk of the hotel, who was on the first floor when the alarm was sounded, rushed to the room, entered and threw out a number of the pieces of burning clothing, together with some feather pillows which had been ignited.

Former Florida Governor Arrested

The search of federal and Florida officials for Sidney J. Catts until recently governor of Florida, and before that an ordained minister, ended Saturday with his arrest at Albany, Ga., on the federal charge of peonage. Released on bond furnished by Albany citizens at the solicitation of two local ministers, the former governor returned to Jacksonville. Two charges await Catts in the state of which he was once the chief executive—the federal charge of peonage and the state charge of bribery.

The arrest of the former governor was brought about by a clothing store clerk who, having sold a collar to him, noticed the initials "S. J. C." in the discarded collar. The clerk thereupon notified the police of his suspicions and the arrest of the former governor followed.
